Overnight Camp Information Sheet

Terrier Training Advanced Overnight Girl's Soccer Camp Saturday July 17th – Wednesday July 21st, 2010

- The Terrier Training camps are advanced camps designed for girls entering grades 9-12 interested in training and playing in a competitive environment
- Focus is primarily on the technical and tactical aspects of playing soccer at the collegiate level
- The camp is coached primarily by college coaches, including the Boston University Women's Soccer staff
- In addition to field player training, the camp program offers specialty goalkeeper training
- Under the direction of professional strength and conditioning coaches, speed and agility training will be included in daily practice for all players
- A certified Athletic Trainer is on the camp site 24/7
- Educational and team building sessions will be offered and will include video analysis of play, nutrition education, mental training techniques, and a session with a BU strength coach on specific conditioning for soccer
- Players are housed in air-conditioned campus dormitories and are fed in the university dining hall all located on West Campus which is adjacent to the camp practice facility
- Roommate requests will be honored whenever possible
- Session I - Camp check in will be between 11 am and 1 pm on July 17th and camp closing will be at 11 am on July 21st.
- Tuition is $600 per overnight camper ($300 deposit due to secure registration with balance due July 1st)
- All players attending will receive a Nike camp t-shirt and an evaluation assessment from their camp coach
- Teams will be accommodated and will be grouped together if requested. Training topic ideas from h.s. or club coaches sending their teams to camp are welcome
- Sign up in team groups of at least 15 players to receive $25/player discount on registration

A complete information packet with final camp details and forms will be sent to you in early July.
